

I object to the move to silence the local weather and traffic reports on XM Radio. Just because I bought XM service does not mean that I don't listen to local FM Radio broadcasts such as WBAP in Dallas on a daily basis. I want the service to continue and which will allow me to get the great instant service at the push of a button.